C. 38.4

Honorable Edward P. Boland, Chairman
Permanent Select Committee on Intelligence
House of Representatives
Washington, D. C. 20515

Dear Mr. Chairman:

This is in regard to your letter of 15 September to the Director requesting a copy of the FY 1978 Congressional Justification Book for the Committee's use in its review of the Agency's budget.

As you know, in response to a call from Mr. Latimer, [redacted] Assistant Comptroller for Resources, has delivered a copy of this book personally to Mr. Latimer.

You may be assured that your Committee will be included in the standard distribution of appropriate Congressional budgetary documents relating to the authorization of the budget of the Agency and the Intelligence Community. Also, we will of course respond to requests for additional budgetary material as the Committee may require.

Sincerely yours,

SIGNED

PERMANENT SELECT COMMITTEE

Honorable Stansfield Turner
Director of Central Intelligence
Washington, D.C. 20505

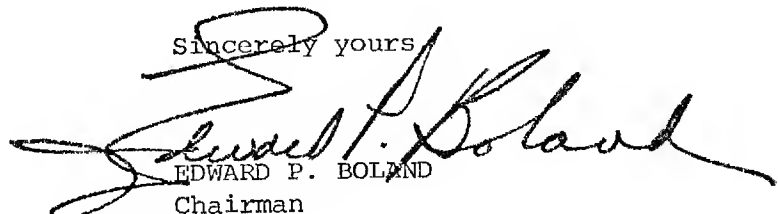

Dear Admiral Turner:

One of the most important tasks assigned the House Permanent Select Committee on Intelligence is to write the annual budget authorization bill for the nation's intelligence and intelligence-related activities. To assist the Select Committee in preparing that legislative activity, it would be most helpful for the Committee to review the FY 1978 Congressional Justification Books prepared for the Congressional oversight committees.

I understand that those volumes contain the most highly classified and sensitive intelligence information. If you agree to provide the Select Committee the FY 1978 volumes, I will ensure that the Staff Director, Mr. Thomas K. Latimer, will take personal responsibility for their storage in the Committee vault which your Director of Security has notified me is accredited to store [redacted] [redacted] material.

With every good wish I am,

Sincerely yours,

EDWARD P. BOLAND
Chairman
